

For immediate release

Feb. 26, 2019

Contact: Elaine Reeder Mayo

Spring Branch Education Foundation plans Golf Classic

Spring Branch Education Foundation board members Scooter Hicks and Jay Sartain are eagerly planning the 23rd annual SBEF Golf Classic slated for Sunday, April 14 at the BlackHorse Golf Club in Cypress. All proceeds from the tournament benefit Spring Branch ISD's 35,000 students through education-enhancing grants and scholarships.

The tournament is a four-player team scramble and includes a raffle, mulligans, a sponsored drive for scholarships and contests for putting, longest drive and ball closest to the hole. Breakfast and lunch are included. Breakfast and registration begin at 8 a.m. with a shotgun start following at 9:30 a.m.

Registration for teams and individuals are open through Monday, April 8: teams, $2,000; individuals, $500. Visit <https://sbef.ejoinme.org/2019GolfTournament> to register for the event or to sign on as a sponsor. Call the SBEF office, 713.251.2381, for more information.

Helping Hicks and Sartain this year are J. Carter Breed, George Kurisky, Warren Matthews, Roy Montalbano, Paul Moreton, Ted Nowak, Ron Nunley, Lisa Schwartz, Debbie Slack, Warren Sloan, Cece Thompson and Brooke Wiggins.

About Spring Branch Education Foundation:

Spring Branch Education Foundation is committed to supporting SBISD students and educators. It partners with the district and community to fund programs that enhance education and students for the future. In 2016, Caruthers Institute ranked SBEF 42nd in the nation among 188 K-12 education foundations and in the top 10 of its division of foundations with $1 million to $1,999,999 in revenues. Since 1993, the Foundation has donated more than $13 million to the district. SBEF is a 501(c)3 organization; all donations are tax deductible.